Direction to Association by Member to "Opt Out" of Production of Name, Address, and Mailing
Address (Civil Code §5220)

Whereas, the Davis-Stirling Common Interest Development Act requires the association upon written demand of a member to produce to any other member a membership list, including the name, property address, and mailing address of all owners, and

Whereas, a recent court decision has further expanded the membership list information to include e-mail addresses of such members, and

Whereas, the Davis-Stirling Common Interest Development Act further allows a member who does not wish to have such contact information shared with other members to "opt out" of the sharing of that information if the association provides the information from the requesting member to the opting-out member by an alternative method rather than giving the member's contact information to the member who requested the membership list;

The following owner(s) hereby direct the association to (a) withhold membership list information concerning said owner(s), and (b) instead to transmit communications which another owner desires to send to all owners in an alternative fashion, either by first-class mail or as otherwise directed in writing by the owner(s).

I, _____, hereby direct the Association as follows:

1. Do not share my/our name, property address, and mailing address (including my/our email address) with any other owner in response to a request for a copy of the association's membership list.

2. Materials to be distributed in connection with a request for the association's membership list may alternatively be transmitted to me by the Association, as follows:

☐ By first-class mail (by choosing this option, I/We agree to pay the association's costs of reproducing/mailling such notices);

☐ By e-mail, at the following email address or addresses:
